CMRA 2003 ASSOCIATE MEMBER APPLICATION

Who is the CMRA?

For over 25 years, the CMRA has provided its members an avenue to test man and machine in a controlled environment.

One of America's premier amateur roadracing organizations, we hold many events annually in the South Central U.S.

Our history includes world class racers such as Freddie Spencer, Kevin Schwantz, Doug Polen, and John Kocinski. Current champions, Colin Edwards and Nicky Hayden made their roadracing start with the CMRA.

What are the benefits of Associate Membership?

For those who do not want to race, but still want to be an active part of the CMRA, we offer an Associate Membership. Benefits include a subscription to The Inside Line (the CMRA's newsletter), Rider's School, practice at Oak Hill Raceway and racer discounts at local motorcycle shops.

How can you get on the track?

To get started, you must complete a CMRA approved rider school. Our schools are held at every event throughout the season. The school will teach you the 'rules of the road' for the track and provide pointers on bike preparation.

After you have completed the Rider's School, you may practice at any open track day at Oak Hill Raceway.

Note: You must have full racing gear and a race-prepped bike to practice.

How else can you be involved?

For the closest non-racing seat in the house, corner working provides action, lunch and $$$ in your pocket. For additional information on corner working, please contact Claire & Barry McMahan at 830-557-6301 or email: bcmcmahan@prodigy.net.

For more information, please call the CMRA office at 817-377-1599 or check out the Rulebook and New Rider Information Packet at www.cmraracing.com
